

After the Storm – An Inspirational Poets & Writers Workshop

Calling all poets and writers!!! Learn how to turn pain into promise and harrowing events into hope and much needed $$$

Join us Saturday, June 27th to be motivated, educated and entertained by fellow poets and published authors who have weathered the storm

Saturday, June 27th
Riverside Mission Library
3581 Mission Inn Avenue
Riverside, CA 92501
Time: 12:30p – 2:30p

Topics Include:

- Protecting your work
- Profiting from Poetry
- Pro's and Con's of Self Publishing and more!

Meet the following author/poets:

Candace Q. Butler A.K.A. "Breeze" author of several inspirational books including Behind My Closed Doors is Relevant and In the Messiah Hands – An Inspirational Poetry Collection. Her setbacks allowed her to bounce back and be renewed with fresh information to give back to the next generations. For more information about Candace, please visit www.riseaboveitwomensoutreach.org.

lily (like the flower) author of girl Child (The Transition – In Poetic Form) a book hailed as being 'raw and empowering – as only the TRUTH can be'. girl Child was recently recognized as an official learning tool of the TruthAids international HIV/AIDS research and educational organization as seen on the Showtime documentary 'All of Us'. For more information visit or www.lilyliketheflower.com or www.truthaids.org

$5 Donation Suggested. Light refreshments will be served. Book signing immediately following the event with books from authors available for purchase.